FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Krill Co., Inc. Receives Top National Marketing Communications Award

CLEVELAND, OHIO (July 16, 2010) The Krill Co., Inc. placed first in the corporate brochure category at the annual Society for Marketing Professional Services' (SMPS) National Marketing Communication Awards competition. The award, given at the National SMPS Conference held in Boston, recognizes excellence in marketing communications by professional services companies in the design and building industry. The new brochure was designed to communicate the unique service experience Krill offers, along with educating owners on the various construction methods available. The Krill Co., Inc. created the brochure in collaboration with Studio Graphique, a leading design firm specializing in the architecture, engineering and construction industry, located in Cleveland.

The Krill Co., Inc. is a professional building company dedicated to providing a full range of services in construction management, general contracting and design/build to Ohio's leading institutions. Krill's commitment to relationships and client satisfaction, an approach that encompasses all phases of construction, has made The Krill Co., Inc. a recognized leader within the construction industry.
