The Krill Co., Inc. welcomes Erin Blaskovic as Marketing and Business Development Manager

Cleveland, OH, January 8, 2015- The Krill Co., Inc. is proud to announce and welcome Erin Blaskovic as the company's Marketing and Business Development Manager. Ms. Blaskovic will be responsible for leading the development and implementation of all marketing and communication strategies, while also overseeing the business development process during the sales cycle within the construction industry.

Erin joins the Krill Co., Inc. after 7 years of sales, business development, and marketing experience with PartnerShip LLC located in Westlake, Ohio. She was a key contributor to building a new trade show line of business with PartnerShip LLC, which is now a leading stream of revenue for the company. Her years spent at PartnerShip LLC were very diverse with a main focus on improving the sales cycle, marketing campaigns, and operations pertaining to this new line.

Erin was born and raised in the Cleveland area and also obtained her Bachelors of Business Administration from Cleveland State University. "I am absolutely thrilled to join The Krill Co., Inc. and look forward to being a part of this Cleveland Renaissance. I love this city so much and I cannot wait to see what new developments will happen next!"

"Without exception, Erin is a perfect fit to The Krill Co., Inc. family and culture. Her love of the city is a reflection of Krill's 'born and raised' approach to business relationships. She is ecstatic knowing that her success will forever be an imprint on the City of Cleveland and surrounding communities and I personally feel that she will have an immediate impact in the industry because of her passion." Jeffrey R. Gliebe, CEO / Co-Chairman.

Since 1932, The Krill Co., Inc. has been building and renovating the landscape of Ohio. The expertise Krill delivers in Construction Management, General Contracting and Design-Build services is highly regarded and repetitively sought by Ohio's leading corporations and institutions.
